

Just think, you're here not by chance,
but by God's choosing.
His hand formed you and made you
the person you are.
He compares you to no one else –
You are one of a kind.
You lack nothing that His grace can't give you.
He has allowed you to be here
at this time in history
To fulfill His special purpose for this generation.
You are God's servant
in God's place
at God's given time.

“He has given us His very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature...”
II Peter 1:4 NIV

ROY LESSIN

Greetings from Brazil,

*This is an awesome reminder to us that God has a purpose, a plan and a place for each of us! All He wants is our love and obedience, the willingness to let Him take the lead and direct our lives according to His perfect will. Wilson and I are learning to put our lives in God's hands each and every day. Wilson has done pilot's exams, check flights, documents and deputation in the local churches here for our upcoming move. We have both had complete physicals and have organized, packed and shipped our belongings. Next step?... fly the plane we will be using to Benjamin Constant to establish ministries and a new flight base there. We are so thankful for all those who made this move possible through love gifts and prayer.

Leaving is easier said than done. How do you say good bye to church family, friends and coworkers after 19 years in Manaus? How do you face starting over yet again with a staff of two families? How do you leave after ministering in so many river communities and Indian tribes in partnership with so many churches? How do you sort through 19 years of accumulated stuff and decide what is necessary? How do you make the adjustment from living in a major capital with more than 2 million people to a river town of 14,000? All we know is that God has a special purpose for us to fulfill and we are so blessed to know you are going with us, the churches are going with us and above all... God has gone before us and prepared the way. We don't need to say "good-bye"! (Sigh of relief) Are we excited? YES Are we apprehensive? Absolutely Ok, so we are human after all. Are we crazy? The things of God often seem foolish to man.

Pray with us that God will continue to direct us, show us His ways and His will and use us as His servants in this generation! Our heart's desire is to reach the unreached with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and disciple fellow believers to continue these ministries for the next generation.

*Thanking God for you,
Wilson and Lori Kannenberg*
